

Hertfordshire Volleyball Association

Competition Rules

Section A. INTRODUCTION

1. This programme requires your full co-operation and goodwill.
2. The HVA will be firm in its dealings with offenders of the rules.
3. Make sure you read the rules. Failure to do so may result in fines/disciplinary action as ignorance is no defence.
4. Clubs are responsible for the conduct of their members at all Hertfordshire competitions. Club members are expected to behave both on and off court in an exemplary manner that promotes the spirit of the game of volleyball.

Section B. GENERAL

1. All matches are to be played as per IVBF/EVA rules.
2. (a) If local conditions require rule changes, this must be declared on the league entry form.
 (b) HVA approval for such changes is required.
3. Matches are to be played on a home and away basis.
4. The home team is responsible for :
 (a) All match arrangements
 (b) Sending directions
 (c) Sending in the score sheet to the HVA Competitions Secretary immediately after the match.
 (d) Informing match officials in writing of match details.
 (e) Sending an offer of the match date and match information to the opposing team, in writing at least 21 days before the match date.
 (f) Informing the Competition Secretary, in writing of any changes to the match details from the published fixture list.
5. The away team is responsible for confirming/rejecting match information, in writing at least 14 days before the match date offered.
6. The first named team on the match Schedule is the home team.
7. Generally, promotion and relegation is on the basis of 2 up, 2 down for divisions 1 and 2 although in practice an assessment is made at the beginning of each new season.
Women's/Mixed divisions - there will be no automatic promotion. Any team from these divisions may apply to enter Division 2. The HVA executive will consider their application.
8. (a) Players are only allowed to play for the club with which they are registered, in any
 (b) Competition organised by the HVA.
 (c) Players may transfer from one club to another, provided that the HVA is informed in writing.
 (d) Clubs must specify their teams and players to the HVA before 31st October each season.
 (e) Clubs are responsible for informing the Competition Secretary immediately in writing of any additions/changes to their team lists (see Section H, rule 11).
 (f) Where a club enters more than one team in HVA competitions players specified for a higher team may not play for a lower team.
 (g) Two teams in the same division, from the same club, will play as separate teams; each team submits a team of players. Any player can play for the other team, up to a maximum of 2 separate occasions. The details must be entered in the remarks section of the score sheet as 'Match1' or 'Match2' .
 (h) Only one player from the EVA/SVA National League Division 1 can be on the score sheet for any team in the HVA. All Division 1 players have to be registered on the team sheet.
9. (a) Women may play for men's teams.
 (b) Female players who play for a club that does not have a women's team in the Hertfordshire league competition may play in a women's team at a different club, provided this information is registered with the competition secretary before any match is played.

□.(c) Boys aged under 16 on 1st September of the current season may play in the women's division.

10. (a) There must be a minimum of two hours available for play.

□.(b) Players not recorded on the score sheet at the start of the match may not take part. Players recorded on the score sheet, but who arrive late, may not play in the set in progress, but may play in subsequent set(s).

□.(c) At least 15 minutes warm-up time should be allowed after the confirmed start time.

□.(d) Any team who is not ready to start 30 minutes after the confirmed start time is in default by being incomplete and forfeits the match by 0 sets to 3, and 0-25 for each set.

□.(e) Any team who is not ready to start at any time between 15 and 30 minutes after the confirmed start time is in default and forfeits the right to a complete game. The match should be played in the usual way but if there is sufficient time to complete the match the defaulting team loses the remaining points and sets to concede the match.

□.(f) If time runs out before the completion of a match where no team is in default (i.e. the minimum two hours were available and the match started on time) both teams retain the sets already won and the away team is awarded the game, plus any incomplete sets.

11. All clubs must forward a copy of their current constitutions to the HVA secretary.

12. All HVA Division 1 matches are to be played in sports halls, the size of which will be in accordance with EVA rules.

Section C. OFFICIALS

1. These shall be neutral and qualified where possible.

2. Line officials are required for all matches, where possible and practicable.

3. All clubs playing in Division 1 are required to provide a minimum of one official (1st referee) for other clubs as set out in the fixtures list. Where possible they should send two officials (1st and 2nd referees). For all other divisions the minimum number of officials is one (1st referee), and where possible two (1st and 2nd referees), although these can be members of the home club.

4. In the event of the non-appearance of an official, the captains of the two teams concerned shall agree to the appointment of an available official. This must be recorded on the score sheet.

Section D. MATCH ADMINISTRATION

.1. All matches are to be recorded on official EVA score sheets.

.2. The home team is responsible for sending the score sheet to the Competition Secretary as soon as possible after each match, and no later than 5 days after the match.

.3. The score sheet should be marked clearly with the type of match, including division and the correct match number as per the published fixture list.

.4. (a) Matches will be played on the dates specified in the fixture list.

□.(b) Only under exceptional circumstances will changes to the fixture list be allowed. The Competition Secretary's approval must be obtained for any change.

□.(c) If the home team wish to re-arrange a match, they must offer (in writing) the away team suitable alternative dates. All this must be done not less than 21 days before the date set in the fixture list, and not less than 21 days before the proposed rearranged date(s).

□.(d) If the away team wish to re-arrange a match, they must request the home team to offer alternative dates. This must be done not less than 21 days before the match date in the fixture list.

□.(e) It is the home team's responsibility to notify the away team, Competition Secretary and match officials, in writing once any revised match arrangements have been confirmed.

5. Where applicable, teams offended under Section B, rule 10 will be awarded:

Section I KO CUP (Special note)

- All rules A – H apply except that no male players will be allowed to play in the Women's KO Cup competition.
- Players registering with a club after 1st February will not be eligible to play for that club in that season's KO Cup.
- Players already having played for a team in the KO Cup may not (even if transferred) play for another team in the KO Cup of that season.
- The KO Cup competition is only open to those clubs who play in one of the HVA leagues.
- All HVA KO Cup matches are to be played in sports halls as per HVA Division 1 regulations.
- Officials for all KO Cup matches must be neutral and qualified and shall be supplied by a third club, as noted in the cup draw. The Competition Secretary will assign the club responsible for each match.
- Two teams from the same club in the Cup play as separate teams. These can be different to the teams registered in the league.
- For the Cup finals, each team must supply 2 line judges and a scorer to officiate at the other match.

Section J – HVA COMMITTEE MEETINGS

- Every club must send a representative to each Committee meeting, who must report back to their club all relevant information.
- If an HVA committee meeting is scheduled for a night when an HVA league or cup match is scheduled, then the two teams involved need not send a representative, although apologies must be given to the chairman or secretary. No fines will be levied on those teams for non-attendance on that date.
